Ripples and Reflections on...

Beginnings

Beginnings

Ripples and Reflections is a 1997 yearbook dedicated to a look back on the years we have shared together, as well as a look forward on what we all hope to achieve. Our years here at York College mean a great deal to us all. Graduation is looked on as the ultimate goal. Realistically, how many times have we said to ourselves "only so many credits until I graduate!!!" Yes, graduation is one way to reflect on our years. After all, in some way direct or indirect we have all affected each other. It was that class freshman year when one classmate remarked on how wrong something was and then a year later you walk into another class and they have completely changed their minds. It goes to show that the old saying "you won't recognize yourself in four years" is a very true statement. Graduation is a way for us to sit back and look seriously at the last four, five or even six years of our lives together. We have spent nights doing almost everything and anything including going to those parties our parents warned us about, philosophizing about what goes on in the world or even complaining about the special someone in our life. We spent our days going to classes and going to the library and checking our email. After all, that is all we are supposed to do in the computer center, right? We have spent what seemed like a lifetime together, however it was just a few short years. Just a few short years to reflect, learn and grow from those around us. This section of the yearbook is dedicated to how we have grown. This is the opening of the yearbook that will forever close a senior's time here at York College. It is a time of great achievement and a time of great reflection. You have now been trained in your discipline and now you are going to be set out to make your own Ripples and Reflections on the world.

Message to the Class of 1997

Much has changed at York College since the arrival of the Class of 1997 in September of 1994. The Campus has literally been transformed by the opening of the Music, Art, and Communications Center. In addition, we have seen the addition of four new residence halls, the refurbishing of Campbell Hall, and the construction of an entirely new College Bookstore. Pizza Hut just checked in to the Student Union over the semester break.

The academic and extra-curricular programs have grown and improved along with the additions to our physical plant. A new mechanical engineering major has taken shape during your years at York College, and significant growth has been experienced in the fields of communications, biology, and recreation. Computers, it seems, have been sprouting up like dandelions. Intercollegiate athletics has advanced, as well, with new or growing sports such as track, cross country, and women's soccer. Club teams have grown up in lacrosse, rugby and men's volleyball. Clearly, a lot has been happening around the campus.

The most important changes, however, are not readily visible. They are the ones that have taken place in the minds and personal characteristics of the students who make up this year's graduating class. College, at its best, is a holistic process of personal development. The student, as he or she completes a degree program, obviously should grow in knowledge and expertise. Beyond the academic insights and professional skills developed, through, there should also be an order of magnitude advance in the individual's sense of personal direction and ability to be self-reliant. How to be a self-directing adult, able to make one's way in a challenging world, is the ultimate lesson that the college experience needs to teach. I hope each graduating student has learned that lesson and is ready to go forward with confidence into the next stages of personal and professional life.

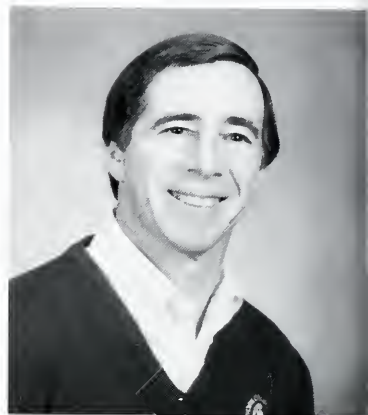

As you go forward, York College will go with you as a fundamental part of your identity. We shall try to stay in touch with you, and we ask that you keep us posted on how you are doing. All of us on the faculty, administration, and staff wish you all the best in your future endeavors. We anticipate with pleasure learning of your progress in life, and we hope you will be a loyal and proud alumnus or alumna of York College.

*The is where your ripples at York College all began. The Ray A.
Miller Administration
Building houses the President's Office, Admissions, Academic, Student & Business Affairs, Registrar's Office and the Records Office.*

Music, Arts & Communications Building

The Music, Arts and Communication building reflects the artistic talent of every YCP student. Completed in 1994, the MAC building includes the latest technology for art, music and television. Inside are music and art studios for instruction, a 208 seat recital hall, the York College Art Galleries, and general purpose classrooms.

Campbell Hall

Melvin H. Campbell Hall contains lecture halls, science laboratories and general purpose laboratories. In 1983, a major renovation of existing chemistry laboratories, coupled with a one million dollar addition of classrooms and laboratories created Campbell's Chemistry Wing and in 1995, the classrooms, offices, and facilities in the remainder of the building were completely renovated as well.

Business Administration

Completed in 1989, the Business Administration Center contains the main academic computer, microcomputer laboratories, classrooms, faculty offices, and the Gladfelter Telecommunications Center. The Life Sciences Building was completed in 1974 and it contains 10 laboratories, a theater, general purpose

Life Science, and the Annex classrooms, faculty offices, and the greenhouse. The Annex was completed in 1981 and it contains theater workshop areas, additional classroom and seminar space, faculty offices, and a faculty lounge. The Business Administration, Life Science, and Annex buildings are where the ripples of knowledge all began.

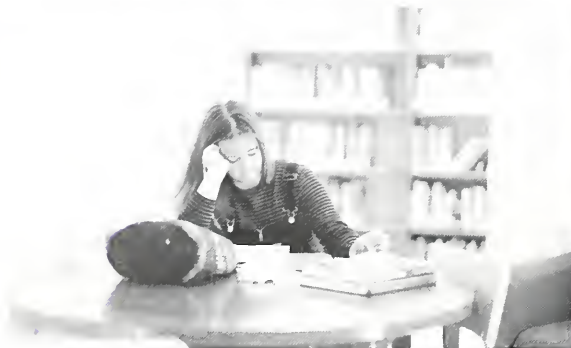

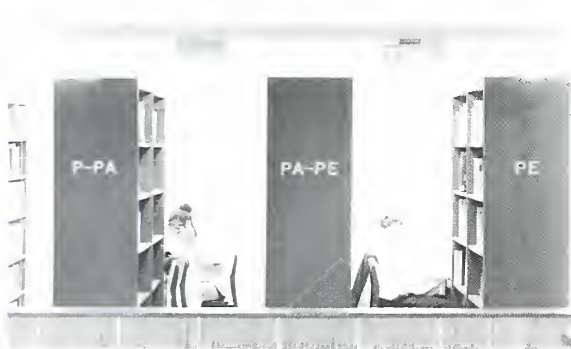

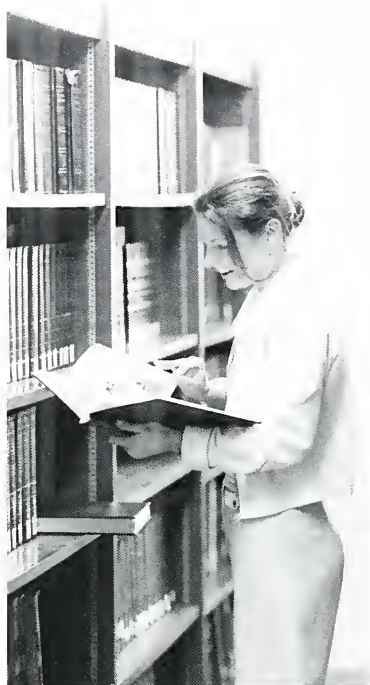

Information

Resources

Located in the Business Administration Building, Information Resources provides computing facilities and support to the students, faculty and staff of York College. There are six computer laboratories containing over 130 computers loaded with the most current software, and all computers are connected to a UNIX system for academic, email and Internet usage.

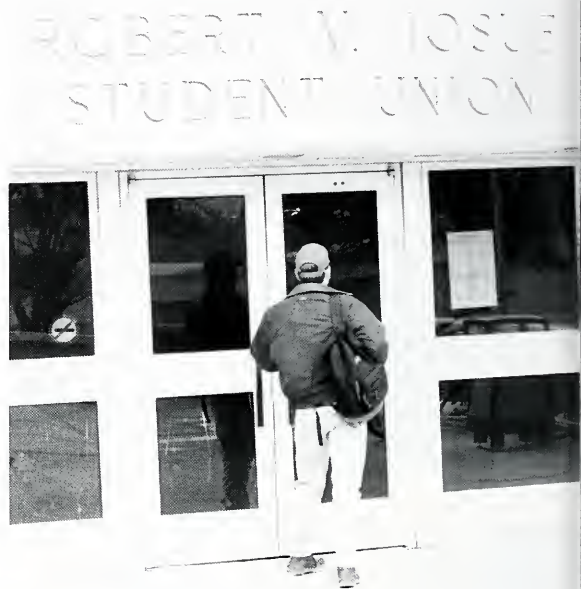

Schmidt Library

When you want to reflect upon knowledge from the greatest minds in the world, Schmidt Library is the Place. Within these walls, students have access to over 176,000 books, periodicals and audio visual items. Facilities include conference rooms, photocopiers, an audiovisual production area, the Lincoln Seminar Room, Archives, Special Collections, the Oral History Center, and the Writing Center.

The Center of Activities

The Robert V. Iosue Student Union is the focal point of York College. It houses the offices for Counseling Services, Student Senate, Security, WNYC Radio Station, Spartan, the school newspaper and Horizon, the school yearbook, Chaplain, Health Center, as well as various other student organization offices. The Student Union is also home to at York College.....

the Johnson Dining Hall which seats 600, and the Spart's Den which is located in the lower level of the Student Union Building. Located in Spart's Den is Pizza Hut, as well as Fast Food Type services and sometimes live entertainment. Also located in the lower level is the York College Bookstore, Convenience Store, and Post Office.

Union

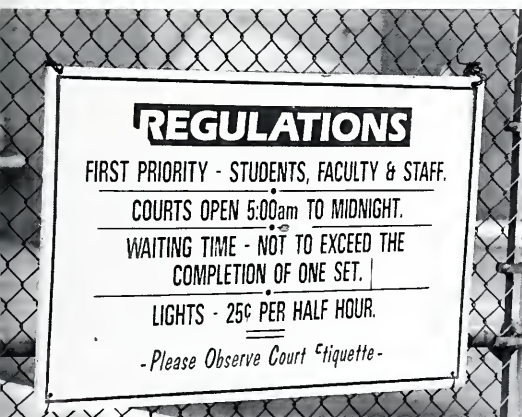

Wolf Gymnasium

For the graduates of York College, this is the building of reflections upon their past few years as an undergraduate, for this is the last building they are in as an undergraduate.

Within these halls, are located the gymnasium, swimming pool, and fitness center, as well as classrooms and offices.

Organizations

Organizations

Accounting Club

The Accounting Club promotes the understanding of the accounting theory and practice. It also serves to unify the accounting majors of YCP, and provides a social network of peers and business persons to provide a broader understanding of the accounting profession as a whole. This is done through regular meetings, social activities, the operation of a tutoring service and the presentation of outside speakers.

ACJA

Open to Criminal Justice majors, the American Criminal Justice Association is designed to foster a greater understanding of the field of criminal justice. It proves a forum for students of criminal justice in all matters of professional concern to them, as well as a way for criminal justice majors to make new contacts, and friends in the field.

American Marketing Association

The York College chapter of the American Marketing Association is a social and informative organization open to students of any major interested in marketing. The club is designed to serve as a medium of exchange and knowledge in the field of marketing. Programs, guest speakers, and field trips to marketing related businesses are a large part of the club's activities.

Biology Club

Open to all students interested in any aspect of biological sciences, the purpose of this organization is to provide biology and allied health students with an opportunity to extend their knowledge of biological and social mechanisms, and to provide those students with an avenue to share their knowledge with the community.

Row 1: Lisa Runner, Holly Cooper, Gena Hilt

Row 2: Shawn Hoskin, Oleg Bortman, Bryan White, Mike Patterson, Brian Short

Black Student Union

The Black Student Union is a service group organized to provide unity and leadership to students who are interested in stimulating and educating other students and the community on topics concerning African Americans. This organization is open to all students.

CAB

The Campus Activities Board is in charge of planning all of the activities that York College students enjoy. Some of these activities include Cash Bingo, the movies which are shown in DeMeester Theater, and the annual Mr. & Miss YCP contests.

Chess Club

The Chess Club seeks to educate interested students in the challenging game of chess, as well as to foster a sense of camaraderie. The Club is open to all students regardless of chess experience.

CULT

The Collegiate Undergraduate Literary Troupe is an organization dedicated to expanding the knowledge of English and literary events. They sponsor poetry readings, guest lectures, movies and book discussions. This organization is not limited to just English majors, everyone is welcome to come and share the enjoyment of literary events in the York College community.

Dance Club

One of YCP's newest organizations, the YCP Dance Club was founded in 1995 to provide fun and fitness for any York College student. The Dance Club is a great way to relieve academic stress and make new friends. There are three practices a week and optional performances at girl's basketball games as well as other sports and events.

Freedom Rings

Open to all YCP students, Freedom Rings tries to provide an educational atmosphere and environment for gay, lesbian, and bisexual issues on campus. It will also provides outreach, suport services, and programs throughout the college to promote education and awareness on these issues.

Row 1: Jennifer Schmehl, Tammy Devlin, Joe Prince

Row 2: Tony Botyrius, Brian Short, Tanje Owe, Marie Kelly

Forensics

This organization is designed for students who are interested in improving their speaking and presentation skills. As a member of this organization, students can be active in intercollegiate tournaments and competitions, give speeches on campus or in the community, participate in the annual multi-media production or join the Phi Kappa Delta national Forensics fraternity.

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is an ecumenical Christian housing organization that works in partnership with people in need to improve the conditions in which they are forced to live. The group has workdays and organizes other social events. No experience is necessary, and all are invited to join.

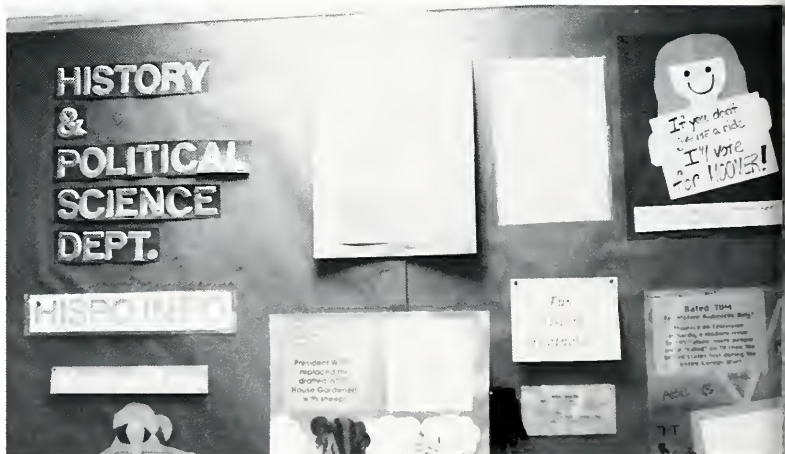

Hillel

This national organization offers spiritual guidance, social, and community activities for YCP members of the Jewish faith. Hillel allows students from different backgrounds in Judaism to come together as a positive force for themselves, the college and the community. The YCP chapter was formed by interested students, faculty, administrators, and members of the local community to facilitate the special needs of Jewish students at York College.

HISPO

The History and International Studies Professional Organization is devoted to the exploration of career opportunities for students in the fields of History, Political Science, and International studies. For the York College community, HISPO arranges public lectures by professionals, authors, and museum curators in these fields, participates in "roundtable" discussions on current controversies, and participate in field trips to museums.

Horizon

A chronicle in pictures and words of the events and emotions of the school year, the Horizon Yearbook is produced entirely by volunteer student staff. The Horizon offers students the opportunity to develop and practice responsible journalism, business management, photographic and artistic skills, as well as allowing students a chance to meet new people and make new friends.

International Students Club

Open to all students with an interest in foreign culture, the International Students Club shares with all American students a wide range of personal, social and political experiences. This organization promotes a positive atmosphere for international students to socialize and investigate the values of all foreign cultures as well as American society.

IVCF

IVCF is a Christian organization. Its 3-fold purpose is to 1) to lead others to personal faith in Christ our Savior, 2) to help Christians grow towards maturity as disciples of Christ through study of the bible, prayer, and Christian fellowship and 3) to present the call of God to York College, helping students and faculty discover God's role for them.

Lacrosse Clubs

The men and women's lacrosse clubs brings to York College "the fastest game on two feet". The objective of this organization is to promote interest in the sport of lacrosse, to develop a close friendship among the students interested in playing the sport, and to improve the skills of players both new and old. It provides club members with life long friendships, help to improve the skills of the players, and offers the entire campus the opportunity to watch this exciting game.

Men's Rugby

Open to all male YCP students (freshmen through seniors) the YCP rugby club began in 1986 and has well over thirty members. This award winning club is affiliated with the Eastern Pennsylvania Rugby Union and fully insures all its members.

Men's Volleyball Club

The York College Men's Volleyball Club's purpose is to satisfy the growing interest in competitive volleyball by promoting inter-collegiate competition. The goal is to improve the skills of each member of the club by emphasizing teamwork, sportsmanship, and a close relationship amongst club members.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is a national religious organization which fosters and promotes the welfare of all college students, faculty and administrators. Catholic students come together to pray, to socialize, and to celebrate the gift of life and its talents by serving others.

NTSA

The Non-Traditional Students Association is an organization open to any student at YCP especially those students returning to the academic environment. The association's primary goal is to provide help in the transition to college life both academically and socially.

Phi Sigma Phi

Founded on a tripod belief of scholarship, leadership, and fellowship, the brothers of Phi Sigma Phi seek to accomplish these endeavors by maintaining a minimum GPA of 3.0, participating in campus leadership positions, and socializing among the college community. This national co-ed non-Greek Honor Fraternity dedicates itself to service.

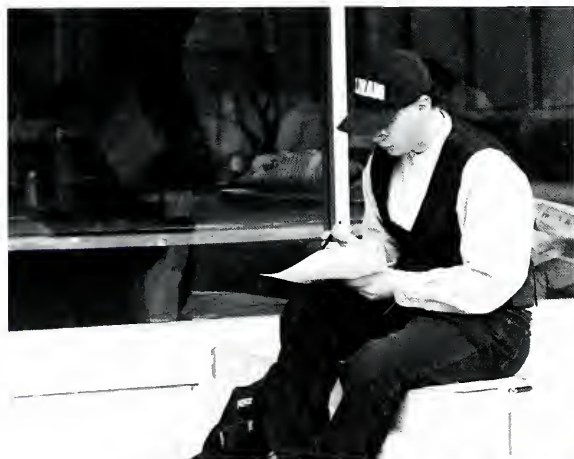

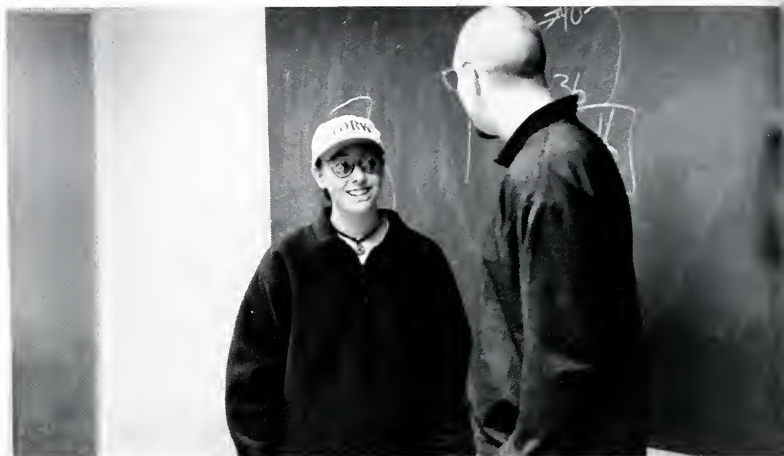

Pre-Law Society

The Pre-Law society is open to all majors and tries to provide opportunities for professional and educational development, foster an awareness and further the knowledge of law related fields and promote professionalism among students interested in law related fields. Members learn about choosing a law school, taking the LSAT and more.

Psychological Society

The psychological society of YCP and its members shall respect the dignity and worth of the individual and strive for the preservation and protection of fundamental human rights. The members shall be committed to increasing knowledge of human behavior and of people's understanding of themselves and others and to the utilization of such knowledge for the preservation of human rights.

Recreation Society

The Recreation society is an organization established to encourage participation in career programs and to promote professionalism among recreation majors. The society provides opportunities for professional development and educational enrichment through membership in and close association with the Pennsylvania Recreation and Parks Society.

Republican Club

The College Republican Club is an organization which helps to make known and promote the principles of the Republican party among the students of YCP. They aid in the elections of Republican candidates at all levels of the government and strive to develop political skills and leadership abilities among YCP students as a preparation for future service to the republican party and to the community as a whole.

Rotaract

Sponsored by the Rotary Club of York, Rotaract is a community service club. Rotaract brings together young men and women of similar interests to enjoy the efforts of teamwork, the success of worthwhile projects, and the bands of friendship. Open to all YCP students, the rotaract club attempts to bring peace and international understanding through various fundraising events and social gatherings.

SAM

Open to all majors, the Society for the Advancement of Management provides the link between the theoretical training learned in college and the business world by uniting business executives and management majors. The club provides students with an opportunity to participate in planning and directing organizational activities while serving as a medium of exchange for information in management and industry.

SEA

SEA, in affiliation with the Student Pennsylvania State Education Association, seeks to develop an appreciation of the teaching profession. This organization is actively involved in the community and neighborhood schools. As a member, there are many opportunities provided to gain information on current education topics and tips toward graduation. All education majors are encouraged to join.

Sigma Iota Epsilon

The York College of Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Iota Epsilon is established to promote and stimulate interest and achievement in the field of management through scholastics, community involvement and business experiences.

Field a Goal

The field hockey team had a record of 12-7 and finished second in the CAC tournament. This Spartan team had the most wins in a season, and the most goals scored in a season, which was 47. This season started out with 28 players and finished with 24 players. In pre-season the team practiced twice a day, five times a week, and Saturday mornings. The Head Coach was Vicki Sutton, the Assistant Coaches were Rebecca Lankford and Sharon Sweger. The field hockey team started with four captains but finished with two -- Lauren Redmond and Kelly Spencer.

Kelly Spencer made the first team at the All CAC Team and she was second in scoring at the match. Three players then made the second team at the All CAC : Erika Krick, Candace Minnix and Jamie Torkar. There were also three members of the Academic All Americans which include Erika Krick, Katie McEntee, and Jaimie Torkar.

Kelly Spencer has been outstanding. She became YCP Career Goals Scored Leader with 32 goals in only three years. She was also named Most Valuable Player this season, and she scored 14 and the most goals this year. Kelly happens to be a senior and will be hard to replace. The field hockey team will have to remain strong without her.

Kick it Around

This was the first full season for this new Spartan team and members had a hard start. The team worked diligently in the pre-season on three day sessions with one being in the morning, afternoon, and evening. The team say many injuries in the first part of the season which caused the tenuous start. The new soccer team lost every game at the beginning because of these problems, but by the last third they started scoring and winning. This season ended with sixteen players total and the team is losing three seniors this year.

The team has Vicki Sterner as head Coach, Brent Kling as Assistant Coach, Resa Andrus as Manager, and three Captains. The Captains are Mel Brensinger, Amy Knepp, and Michelle Inguagiato. All three are Seniors this year and they will be tough replacements. The most valuable player was awarded to Justine Rice who has scored the most points this year and is a sophomore. Justine is here from Middletown, NJ and she scored a total of 14 points for the team this year.

If one word were to describe this team, it might be perseverance because of the combination of the regular problems in starting an entire team and the injuries that occurred. The team showed a large improvement beginning October 10th when they won 3 games out of a total of 6. All in all, it was a start that will generate new wins in the future.

Volley

The Ball

Bump - Set - Spike

In 1996, the volleyball team started out strong and confident early in the season. The Spartans did extremely well in New York completing their best performance there in the last three years. A highlight this year occurred when the team won against the CAC defending champions, Gallaudet, in four games. The team weakened in October because of two weekends off, but the overall achievements were impressive. At the final tournament in November at Messiah, the Spartans ended on a happy note finishing third out of six. Seasonal accomplishments include finishing in first place in the Bronze Division at the Juniata classic, and setting new and impressive records in performance.

Jess Elicker and Jill Crouse are two of the teams assets. Jill made the All tournament Team at Courtland, where the team played in September, and Jess made the All Tournament Team twice; at Franklin & Marshall and Messiah. Jess also advanced to the All CAC Team, and since she is a sophomore we hope to see more.

The team plans on making some major changes this year. One of which is to carry a second season in the spring which will begin February, 1997. This new season is action packed with weight lifting, jump training, practice, and competition in order to prepare them for the challenges they will face next year. The Spartans plan on staying strong for the final conference matches and the playoffs.

Women's Cross Country

The women's cross country season was successful this year, and the final record was 3-0. Under coach Richard H. Achtzehn, eight out of the eleven members on the team finished runner up at the first annual York Invitational at John Rudy County Park.

At the conference championship meet, Julie Lockard finished in 10th place and Jennifer Meyers finished in the 12th position; both recieved second team All - Conference honors. This is the second year that Meyer's finished with second team honors. Lockard impressed all when she won the individual championship at the Cabrini Invitational; she beat 67 other runners. Julie was also selected as the most valuable player for the 1996 season. Christine Bateman proved herself when she finished 12th among all freshmen and then moved to the freshman All Mideast Region Team.

This team is full of prize Winners. Angela Tripp, Julie Lockhard, Christie Bateman, Jenifer Meyers, and Stacey McCauslin meadeled at invitational meets. Most of them winning at four meets.

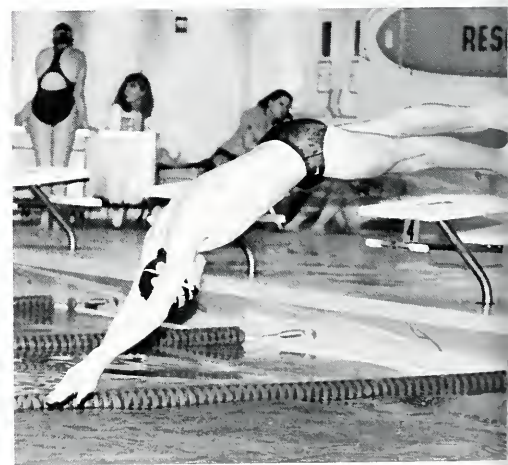

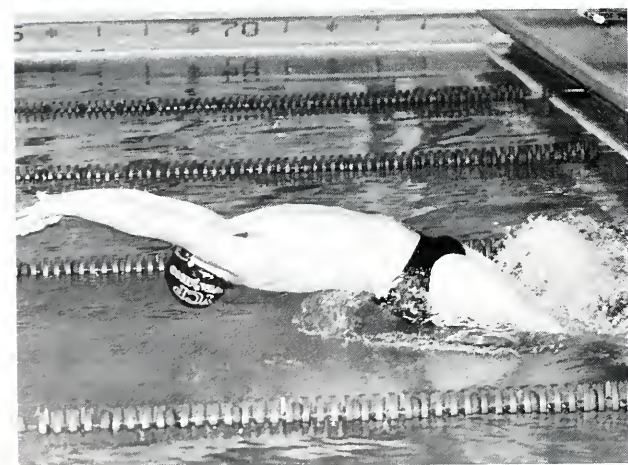

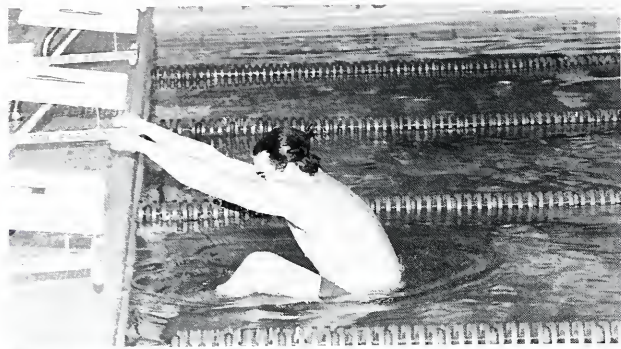

Men's Cross Country

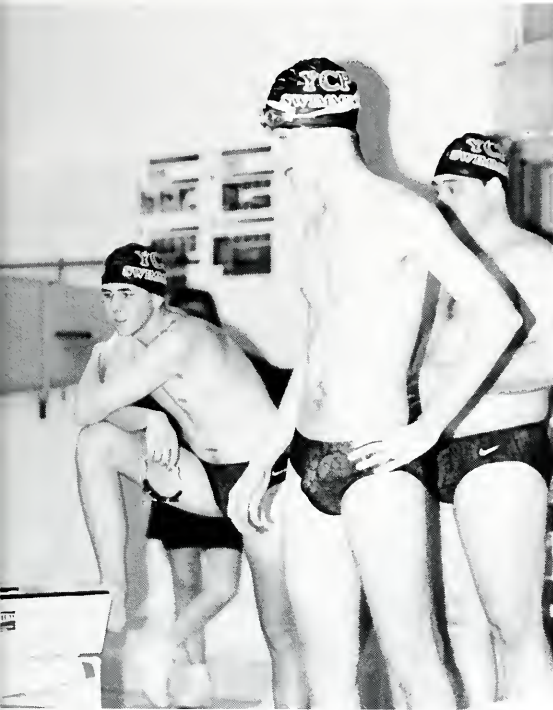

With Richard H. Achtzen as Coach and Tom Wess and Steve Schilling as Captains, the Men's Cross Country team had a great record of 3-0. The team started and ended with eighteen players in good standing. The Spartans won team championships at the Elizabethtown Relays and Cabrini Invitational. Other triumphs involve placing third at the first annual York Invitational at John Rudy County Park, and runner-up at the Goucher Invitational. At the conference championship meet the team placed third which improved from last year where they placed fourth.

Stephen Kochansky finished in 10th place at the conference championships and joined the second team All-Conference honors. Stephan Kochansky, Steve Schilling, George Livingston, Mike Pisors, Mike Schwartz, Josh Syvertsen, Sean McCrink, and Tom Wess all recieved medals this year for their efforts. Kochansky was selected as the most valuable player of the team for 1996.

The Spartans set a school record by making 205 three-point shots, with Johnny Baer making 86 of those shots.

Cheering Us On!

They came, they saw, they took the CAC's by storm! The York College cheerleading team hosted the first annual Capital Athletic Conference cheerleading competition on February 16, 1997. The stands were packed with enthusiastic fans and the energy was intense as the team tumbled and stunted their way through a carefully choreographed routine. Their top performance reflected the long hours and dedication that these members devoted towards the fall and winter seasons of cheerleading for the men's soccer and basketball teams. They braved the cold evening nights on the cinder track, rallying the soccer fans to boost the team's energy during overtime. They found their own means of transportation to away games at Franklin and Marshall University and Gettysburg College to support the York College basketball players. The men and women on this squad were always there to cheer on other athletic teams and displayed their own style of dance and cheerleading throughout two jam-packed sports seasons and still succeeded to claim first price at the competition.

Each year, the cheerleading program strenghtens under the eyes of head coach Lynne Iati. Coach Iati prepared the team for the annual York Halloween parade, which brought positive publicity to York College. She also implemented a mandatory weight training program to further strenghten their athletic bodies for advanced stunting, jumps, and gymnastics. The team also expermented with intricate dance routines which were enhanced by having the girls wear sporty dance outfits. Coach Iati arranged for the team to perform at a York City Cyclones basketball game, which won them great exposure to a crowd of over 1,000 people, where they performed a quick-stepping funk routine at half time.

The men and women on this team always found a way to bring the best out of themselves when it mattered most. Their ability to pull together in practice when that extra concentration was needed to perfect the heel-stretch mount or throw that high basket toss was crutial to a great season. When all is said and done, these people really knew how to do their job, and took the sport of cheerleading by storm.

Miss

YCP

Celebrating the beauty of women, on Friday, April 25, 1997 in DeMeester Theatre the Miss YCP pageant was held. Hosting this fun filled event was Mr. YCP, Dave Naisby. These women portrayed abilities in the talent competition that we didn't even know they had, demonstrated grace and poise in the formal wear competition and their fabulous figures in the swimwear competition. At the end of the night, the final victors were named:

Miss YCP : Carol Lagueux (Phi Sigma Pi)

First Runner Up : Victoria Schmidt (Players)

Second Runner Up : Cindy Sortino (WVYC)

Third Runner Up : Stahsha March (Forensics Team)

Fourth Runner Up : Anne Burgraff (Sigma Delta Chi)

Yolanda King Visits YCP

Mr YCP

The competition to prove male excellence at YCP (well, excellence in humor anyways), the Mr. YCP competition was held on November 15, 1996. Hosting this ever popular event was Rachel Douches, Miss YCP 1996. There were 13 contestants representing various organizations, and each competitor was involved in the talent, swimwear, evening wear, and question and answer session. This lighthearted night was complete with the following results :

Mr YCP : Dave Naisby

First Runner Up : Bryan Greaves

Second Runner Up : Lamar Mathew

Third Runner Up : Devon Kelly

Fourth Runner Up : Ryan Giffing

The Fifty-Fifth volumn of the HORIZON yearbook was produced by the Horizon, a non profit organization with a voulenteer student staff. The Horizon is an organization of the student government of York College of Pennsylvania, Country Club Road, York, PA 17405, (717) 846 - 7788.

The Horizon was printed by JOSTENS Printing & Publishing from its State College, PA plant. Our representative to the company was David Ruler and our plant consultant was Janice Bigelow. The cover is a full color litho with high gloss lamination. The rendering was completed in consultation between the Horizon staff and Krista Keller of JOSTENS Creative Resource Department. The 9x12, 208 page book was printed on 80" Double Coated Gloss paper with snow white endsheets and the press run was 500 copies.

All layouts and design were done on Macintosh computers using Aldus Pagemaker 5.0.

Professional photography was produced by DaVor Photography of Bensalem, PA and our representative was Neil Wieldman.

Horizon advisors were Beverly Evans and Kelly Smedley. The Editor-in-Chief was Kathleen J. Mooney. Co-Editor of Creativity was Kathy Skiles. Co-Editor of Administrative Activities was Tracey VanKasten. Staff Members were Sarah Strake, Estelle Keller, Joanne Fitzgerald, Lori Guida and Anthony Adinolfi.

An Editor's Reflection..

As the 1996 - 1997 academic year has come to a close, I feel that it is time for me to look back on the year and share my feelings. As the seniors look forward to a new life, I believe this book has done well in showing your last year at York College. I am sure that it has been a splendid four years here for you and that you look back on it with great affection. You have left your ripples to each and everyone of your classmates and you will look back to York College with great reflection in the years to come. The graduating class of 1997 leaves much for the underclassmen to live up to. As I complete my sophomore year, I look back and see many accomplishments already in my short two years here at the college, and I look forward to many more. As the seniors go off, I hope you are leaving with a sense that you too have accomplished something and that your time here at York College has given you something to carry on.

As this yearbook season comes to an end and the final deadlines loom there are some people I want to thank. I would like to first start with Beverly Evans, Director of Student Activities. Without Bev's constant support, I am not sure what would have happened. I would also like to extend a warm thanks to Kelly Smedley. This was Kelly's first year as Faculty Advisor to the Horizon. She has done a wonderful job and I hope that you continue with it for years to come. Special thanks to Kathy Skiles, Co-Editor in Charge of Creativity, and Tracey VanKasten, Co-Editor in Charge of Administrative Activities. I would also like to thank my full time staff as well Sarah Strake, Estelle Keller, Joanne Fitzgerald, Lori Guida, and Anthony Adinolfi. I could not have done this year's book without you. You made it a great deal of fun and for that you will forever have my thanks.

Sincerely,

Kathleen J. Mooney
